

#uconnengaged

UConn Stamford
12:00 to 2:00 pm

UConn

University-Wide

Service Learning ex·po·si·tion!!

Wed. April 20

Service Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities. -Carnegie Foundation

UConn Stamford - Concourse

12:00 to 2:00 Poster Viewing, Mingling, and Networking with Faculty and Students
Students, faculty and staff...come find out how these courses are considered Service Learning and can be part of YOUR educational and professional experience!

Who will be there???

Human Development and Family Studies -
HDFS 3421 and 3430 'Low Income Families' and Family School Partnerships' with Monica Miller

Business Management - MGMT 3101 'Interpersonal and Managerial Behavior' with Nicole Jackson

Digital Media - DMD 2020 'Design Thinking' with Matthew Worwood

Economics - ECON 3438 'Contemporary Economic Problems' with Oskar Harmon

Political Science - POLS 3612 'Electoral Behavior' with Beth Ginsberg

Psychology - PSYC 3889 'Reading Program' with Donald Takacs

UConn

OFFICE OF PUBLIC
ENGAGEMENT

Relevant, Reciprocal, Responsible Engagement for Transformative Change

AND MORE!!

CONTACT: julia.yakovich@uconn.edu to join as a presenter or for any questions