

#uconnengaged

Campuses

12:00 pm to 2:30 pm
Refreshments Served

UConn

University-Wide

Service Learning ex·po·si·tion!!

Wed. April 20

Service Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities. -Carnegie Foundation

Questions to julia.yakovich@uconn.edu

Storrs Campus - South Reading Room, Wilbur Cross Building

Learn Share Inspire...Service Learning

Who will be there??

Husky Reads - Husky Sport - Husky Nutrition - Spring Valley Student Farm - EcoHouse - Office of Community Outreach Programs and Jumpstart - Power, Privilege, and Public Education - Film (Course) - Politics of Crime and Justice (Course) - Student-led Air Quality Assessment of Towns (Course) - Community Engaged Writing for Human Rights (Course) - Marketing for Connecticut Community for Addiction Recovery (Course/Independent Study) - Climate Adaptation with CT Municipalities and Utilities (Course) - Grow Windham Partnership - Latino and Latin American Studies and Migrant Workers Honors Course (LLAS/HIST) - Urban Semester - UConn Extension Programs - Garden Center Management - Urban Transportation Student Films - Service Learning in STEM: Teaching Science by Writing for Non-Scientists - School of Pharmacy - Food Policy AND MORE!!!

UConn

OFFICE OF PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Relevant, Reciprocal, Responsible Engagement for Transformative Change

AGENDA

12:00 to 12:45 - Poster presentations and general mingling
12:45 to 2:30 - PechaKucha style presentations and film showings

South Reading Room, Wilbur Cross Building